CHARGE OF OBTAINING GOODS BY FALSE PRETENCES:

MORRIS E. MICHABL IN THE BOX. At the Magistracy yesterday, before Mr. T. Sercombe Smith, Morris E. Michael, alias Bennett, who was described as a broker, was charged with obtaining goods by false pretences. Cassim Mahomed said he kept a draper's and milliner's shop at 7, Peel street. On Saturday afternoon about three c'clock defendant came into the shop with a sample of plush and said he wanted to buy one or two pieces. Witness showed him some plush, upon which defendant said, "I do not want any plush, show me some silk; I want to buy silk." Witness produced the silks in court and showed them to defendant. A bargain was struck for $182.50. Defendant asked for pen and ink. At this time Sergeant Collett and his wife came into the shop.. Witness went out of the shop with the Sergeant, who told him to be careful in dealing with defendant. When witness returned into the shop defendant had finished writing the compradore order produced and handed it to him. He asked defend. ant where he could get the money, and defendapt replied at the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank. Witness said, "To-day is Saturday, I it is no good I would charge him." said in defendant's hearing and presence. Defendant then snatched the order out of Pulcera's hand and tore it, part remaining with Fukeera and part going into defendant's hand. Witness seized defendant by the collar. Defendant resisted, but witness did not let go. Defendant delivered up the part of the
